Via mosel' - the first cross-border wine tourism program on the European Mosel

Four wine-growing regions in the Mosel valley between Toul (Lorraine, France) and Koblenz (Rhineland-Palatinate, Germany) past Remich (Luxembourg) and Perl (Saarland, Germany) have joined forces to create a wine tourism program focusing on wine and architecture.

Around 60 wineries and 30 wine villages in the three Mosel countries with remarkable architecture are taking part in the project. They offer their guests a high-quality and tangible tourism program and invite them to cross borders and discover new architectural and viticultural treasures.

Portes Ouvertes

Via mosel' always invites you to the big wine architecture weekend on the 1st weekend in April. Along the German-Luxembourgish-French Moselle, the wineries and wine villages of the 'Via mosel' open their doors and gates to wine and architecture lovers.
